

At FS Advisors, we are committed to providing Tribes with the financial services and products needed to ensure financial strength for future generations. By combining our deep expertise, innovative approach and comprehensive service offerings, we are able to understand your Tribe's needs and provide the appropriate solutions and services.

As an American Indian owned financial advisory firm our team of professionals and advisors have years of experience working with tribal governments and enterprises. Our knowledge of how tribes are structured as well as how they operate allows us to provide you with the expertise required to meet your ever changing financial needs.

Our comprehensive suite of services allows you to obtain fully-integrated financial solutions through one service provider ensuring that your all of your needs are coordinated.

INVESTMENT AND CASH MANAGEMENT

Our investment approach focuses on creating investment strategies that are designed specifically to meet your Tribe's current needs while ensuring the strategy provides financial strength for future generations.

TRIBAL MEMBER BENEFITS

Tribes have the unique responsibility of providing for their members in ways that other organizations don't. We understand the types of programs that your members need and are dedicated to assisting tribal leaders with creating the programs and benefits that specifically meet your Tribe's current needs.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

You have worked hard to build your enterprises and deserve a creative and unique benefits provider that can help you attract, retain and reward the people that are vital to your organization. Our customized approach allows us to provide a variety of benefit plan management services, communications, and products that are designed specifically for you.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Our team of insurance experts is dedicated to successfully protecting your tribal enterprises and assets. We start with a risk management audit to identify your needs, we get to know your culture and enterprises, and we work with the integrated advisory team to provide you with the best information, advice, and solutions to protect your enterprises, your employees, your customers and your Tribe.

FINANCING PACKAGE DEVELOPMENT AND PLACEMENT

We provide a comprehensive approach to financing package development beginning with development of the business and marketing strategy and ending with securing the most suitable financing for the project. As advisors, we can help you determine objectively which financing options are best suited for you.
